

And the beat goes on...

Our student leaders are all over the place!!

From leading two workshops at Peer Summit in San Rafael to leading assemblies in Marin, Alameda, Richmond and San Francisco, to planning and leading events like Be Kind Online Day & No One Eats Alone: Our message of inclusion and acceptance is being heard loud and clear!

We are so proud of these brave students for taking a stand against social isolation and inspiring others to be kind and inclusive.

Parents Night Out is Sunday, December 13th!

We hope you can join us for this very special night hosted by your children! Both our high school Teen Board of Directors and middle school leadership students will perform an interactive presentation about what they have learned in Beyond Differences this year. You don't want to miss this! Featuring very special guest speaker Jon Isaacs

(pictured), Chief of Community Involvement and Public Affairs for Portland Public Schools. He'll speak about what every parent needs to know about the negative effects of social media on kids.

Please RSVP at <http://evite.me/eqhxhPPV5N>

National No One Eats Alone Day is February 12, 2016!

Last year, over 700 schools in 38 states participated in National No One Eats Alone Day! This year we hope to more than double our impact and inspire one million new friendships!

Want to volunteer? We need you!

Want to help No One Eats Alone reach one million students? Help us with outreach to schools all over the country so they can receive their FREE NOEA toolkit to run the event! Additionally we are looking for a few parents to help coordinate Parents Night Out! on December 13th.

Let us know if you're interested by emailing beyonddifferences@gmail.com

Volunteer Superstars: Teen Board parents Dee Marie Rawlinson and Dominique Harroch are co-chairing the Planning Committee for our Annual Event on April 3! We are so grateful!
